

Caltech/MIT Enterprise Forum
STRATEGIC RELATIONSHIPS:
The Lifeblood of Life Science Ventures
April 26, 2003

KEYNOTE SPEAKER:

Richard T. Haiduck
Director,
Burrill & Company

Richard Haiduck has over 20 years of extensive general management and dealmaking experience with prominent life sciences companies. Most recently, he was CEO of BioStreet, which is an industry leading accelerated approach to deal-making, and which has now joined forces with Burrill & Company. Prior to BioStreet, he was CEO of Desmos, Inc., and VP of Corporate Development at Geron Corporation, where he completed various financing and strategic alliance transactions. Prior to joining the biotechnology industry, he spent 14 years with Abbott Laboratories, primarily in general management roles running overseas operations and a domestic pharmaceutical business unit. Mr. Haiduck has his undergraduate degree in Marketing from Miami University, Oxford, Ohio and his MBA in Finance from Xavier University, Cincinnati, Ohio.

PANELISTS:

Steve Allen
Vice-President, New Business Development
Nestlé USA

Steve Allen has been in the food industry for over twenty years. Among other things, Steve is involved with Nestlé's recently-formed Euro 150MM Venture Capital Fund to provide access to new science, technology and know-how in the Life Sciences. Based in Switzerland, the Fund looks to invest in enabling technologies (genomics, proteomics, bio-informatics etc.,) as well as in products and processes in Food and Nutrition. Steve gained experience working in Africa, the Middle East, the Far East and Switzerland. Prior to moving to the USA he was head of the Nutrition Division of Nestlé in Canada. He has had functional responsibility for marketing and sales in his career as well as general management. Steve was born in England and has an undergraduate degree from the University of Leeds and a graduate degree from the University of London.

George Lasezkay
Independent Consultant
Former Corporate Vice-president, Allergan, Inc.

Dr. Lasezkay was Corporate Vice President, Corporate Development of Allergan, where he was in charge of all strategic partnerships between Allergan and other companies from 1998. He had been Assistant General Counsel of Allergan since 1995 and Senior Counsel there since 1989 when he first joined the company. Since leaving Allergan, Mr. Lasezkay has advised companies in pharmaceuticals and biotechnology on the structuring and management of strategic alliances. He currently serves as a member of the Board of Directors of ISTA Pharmaceuticals. Dr. Lasezkay received a Pharm.D. from State University of New York and a J.D. from the University of Southern California.

Lloyd A. Rowland

Vice President, Secretary and General Counsel
Amylin Pharmaceuticals

Lloyd Rowland joined Amylin Pharmaceuticals as Vice President and General Counsel in September 2001. Prior to joining Amylin, Lloyd was with Alliance Pharmaceutical Corp. where he served as Vice President, General Counsel and Secretary of the Company. Prior to working for Alliance, Mr. Rowland served as Vice President and Senior Counsel, Finance and Securities, at Imperial Savings Association. Before joining Imperial Savings Association, he was engaged in the private practice of corporate law with the San Diego, California law firm of Gray Cary Ames & Fry, and the Houston, Texas law firm of Bracewell & Patterson. He received his J.D. from Emory University

Bassil I. Dahiyat

President & CEO
Xencor, Inc.

Dr. Dahiyat is co-founder of Xencor and co-inventor of its Protein Design Automation® technology. He has been CEO since incorporation of the company in August of 1997. Dr. Dahiyat manages the Company's research activities and directs an aggressive patent strategy for Xencor's technology platform and proprietary proteins. Dr. Dahiyat has co-authored numerous scientific papers in the fields of protein design and drug delivery and has received scientific awards from the American Chemical Society, the Controlled Release Society, the Protein Society and Caltech. Dr. Dahiyat holds a Ph.D. in Chemistry from Caltech and BS and M.S.E. degrees in Biomedical Engineering from the Johns Hopkins University.

MODERATOR:

Ira D. Moskatel, Arnold & Porter. Ira Moskatel's law practice focuses on the representation of businesses that depend on intellectual property or technology, including computer software and hardware, entertainment, publishing, communications, and electronic commerce, with emphasis in licensing, mergers and acquisitions, joint ventures and strategic alliances. Ira was a founder of Teradata Corporation, a manufacturer of massive parallel database computers (acquired by AT&T several years after a major public offering) and served as a member of the Board of Directors of Peter Norton Computing, Inc. before its acquisition by Symantec. He is a past chair of the Caltech/MIT Enterprise forum and has served as Chair of the Law and Technology Section of the Los Angeles County Bar Association. He has lectured and written extensively for major publications on legal aspects of technology, electronic commerce and data security. Ira received a Bachelor of Science in Engineering and Applied Science from the California Institute of Technology and a J.D. from the University of Southern California Law Center, where he was elected to Order of the Coif and the Board of Editors of the Southern California Law Review. He is certified as a specialist in taxation law by the Board of Legal Specialization of the State Bar of California.